COUNCIL PROCEDURES

1. In council meetings the Presiding Officer will present topic of debate.
2. There will be four minutes for questions on the topic.
3. Each country will be given the opportunity to present their country's position on the topic. Presentations will be 2 minutes each. Countries are not required to present positions, but this is recommended for partnership with other countries in writing proposals. Delegates will use position statements to develop a resolution on specific topics.
4. Presiding officer will facilitate the sharing of general ideas on the topic with the entire council for 12 minutes.
5. There will 20 minutes for countries with similar ideas to collaborate to write proposal on the assigned topic. The proposed resolution must have four country signatures before being submitted to the chair.
6. After resolutions have been written the resolution Authors will have 1 min for brief resolution summary.
7. Each country will then rank the resolutions for that topic.
8. Ranking sheets will determine top resolutions for each topic. This will
9. be used to set the docket for general debate session on Friday. Dockets will be posted Friday morning.
10. Friday each council will go into General Debate for all the resolutions on the Docket.
 - a During debate of resolutions, an amendment may be submitted. The amendment procedures are to be followed.
 - b Voting – The presiding officer will allow up to 1 minute for countries to “caucus,” which means to decide how the country will vote. Each country gets ONE vote.
 - i. Note: For Security Council, the Russian Federation, China, U.S., U.K., and France may veto any resolution that comes across

COUNCIL OVERVIEW

Resolution Writing:

- Presiding Officer calls roll
- Resolution Writing time
- Presiding Officer presents topic to resolve
- Questions on Topic 4 minutes
- Present Position Statements 2 minutes per country
- Idea Sharing on Possible Resolutions 12 minutes
- Country collaboration for proposal writing 20 minutes
- Resolution Authors Summary Presentation 1 minute per resolution
- Ranking on the Resolutions 1 minute

General Debate:

- Presiding Officers will post the docket for General Debate based off resolution rankings
- Docket will comprise of resolutions from all topics
- Debate per resolution ≈ 26 minutes per Resolution
- Presiding officers will create docket from resolutions passed to be debated in Plenary.

PLENARY COUNCIL PROCEDURES

1. The Secretary General, with input from the presiding officers, will determine the Plenary Docket and display for the conference to see. These resolutions are the top resolutions from each council.
2. Countries will be arranged in a country roll call order for the plenary session.
3. Debate will proceed based on the order of the docket.

Note: Amendments may not be submitted during the Plenary Session.

PLENARY SESSION OVERVIEW

- Presiding Officer calls roll
- Presiding Officer presents docket
- Debate ≈ 26 minutes per Resolution

GENERAL DEBATE PROCEDURES

If the council to which the resolution was referred reports it favorably and if the presiding officer places it on the Docket, the sponsor(s) shall present the resolution to the appropriate council.

PROCEDURES FOR RESOLUTION CONSIDERATION ON THE FLOOR

RESOLUTION SPONSOR'S OPENING STATEMENT

3 MINUTES

- Sponsor may use all three (3) minutes.
- Sponsor may use part and yield rest to co-sponsor, technical questions, closing statements or the chair.

QUESTIONS

3 MINUTES

- The presiding officer will open the floor to Questions from the floor. The presiding officer will recognize members of the body to question the resolution sponsor(s) on any matter relating to the content of the resolution in question until time expires.
- The presiding officer has the authority to deem questions germane or not germane.
- In the event the delegate wishes to ask more than one question, he/she will say the following: "Will the author(s) yield to a series of questions?" The sponsor(s) may refuse.

12 MINUTES

- The presiding officer will open the floor to general debate on the resolution in which members of the body may express their opinions on the resolution.
- Each delegate may speak for a maximum of two (2) minutes.
- In the event a delegate does not use all two (2) minutes, he/she may yield to another delegate to speak. This delegate may speak for the remainder of the original two (2) minutes given by the chair. Time may not be yielded if it has been yielded once before.
- The presiding officer will alternate between speakers in proposition and speakers in opposition of the resolution. If the first speaker recognized supports the resolution, the presiding officer will call for a speaker to debate against the resolution, and vice versa.
- The speaker may ask the resolution sponsor(s) a question or a series of questions upon being recognized by saying "Will the author(s) yield to a question/series of questions?" The speaker may engage in debate before and/or after the question(s).
- Members of the body may also propose amendments upon being recognized by the chair. In the event an amendment is deemed hostile by the resolution sponsor(s), the following procedure will take place:

AMENDMENT DEBATE AND VOTE

9 MINUTES

Amendment Sponsor's Opening Statement	2 minutes
Questions	1 minute
General Debate on the Amendment	4 minutes
Original Resolution Sponsor's Statements	1 minute
Amendment Sponsor's Closing Statements	1 minute

- For a full explanation of the amendment process, see "Explanations of Parliamentary Motions and Points" below.

RESOLUTION SPONSOR CLOSING STATEMENT

2 MINUTES

- Once debate has closed on the resolution, the presiding officer will recognize the resolution sponsor(s) to deliver the Closing Statement to present the arguments for final passage for the final time.
- In the event the sponsor(s) yielded unused time from the Opening Statement, the total time available to the sponsor(s) will be two (2) minutes plus that time.

FINAL READING OF RESOLUTION AND VOTE

- The presiding officer will convene a vote for final action on the resolution
- The resolution will be read by title only for the final time.
- There will be a 1-minute country caucus to confer with countrymen to render a vote.
- The presiding officer will ask countries for a voice vote indicating for the yeas and nays towards passage of the resolution. Voting is conducted by country roll call. Each country may only vote only once. A simple majority (1/2) is required for passage.

EXPLANATIONS OF PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Only the following motions and points are allowed during debate.

For all motions save motions to amend legislation, the following procedure will be used:

- A delegate may seek recognition from the presiding officer by rising and saying, "Mr./Mme. Chair."
- Once the presiding officer recognizes the delegate, he/she will state the motion.
- If the presiding officer deems the motion appropriate, he/she will call for a second.
- If a second is given, the presiding officer will then ask for objections.
 - If there are no objections, the motion is immediately adopted.
 - If there is an objection or multiple objections, the presiding officer will convene a vote.
- The required majority varies for each motion.

1. Amendments to Resolutions

- Motions to amend resolutions are allowed at any point during the Debate portion in debate. They may not interrupt speakers.
- These motions have the effect of changing the verbiage of resolutions.
- The presiding officer is empowered to deem amendments germane or not germane to the resolutions in question.
- After the committee chair or presiding officer recognizes a delegate to speak during Debate, he/she will move to amend the resolution. "I move to amend Resolution 19 to read..."
- Upon moving to amend the resolution, the amendment author will hand the completed amendment form found at the back of the conference binder to the clerk or presiding officer. The presiding officer will then ask the resolution sponsor(s) whether they deem the amendment friendly or hostile to the resolution.
 - In the event the sponsor(s) deem the resolution friendly, the amendment text will be immediately added to the resolution without debate or a vote.
 - In the event the sponsor(s) deem the resolution hostile, the presiding officer will open debate on the amendment.
 - The amendment sponsor will deliver an opening statement on the amendment for a maximum of two (2) minutes.
 - The presiding officer will open the floor to Questions from the floor for a maximum of one (1) minute.
 - The presiding officer will open the floor to Debate. Each recognized speaker may speak for a maximum of one (1) minute. Upon the conclusion of each speaker's speech, the chair will immediately take back the floor in order to recognize another speaker. The total time for Debate shall not exceed four (4) minutes.
 - The presiding officer will then recognize the resolution sponsor(s) to deliver comments on the amendment for a maximum of one (1) minute.
 - The presiding officer will then recognize the amendment sponsor for a Closing Statement for a maximum of one (1) minute.

- The presiding officer will then convene a vote on the amendment. A simple majority (1/2) is required for passage.
- If a hostile amendment is approved by the body, the presiding officer will direct debate back to the general Debate on the resolution as amended.
- In the event a delegate wishes to amend the amendment, the above process will take place with the secondary amendment. Tertiary amendments are not allowed.
- All debate must remain relevant to the question at hand, whether it be the general resolution, an amendment, or a secondary amendment.

2. The Previous Question

- Motions for the previous question are allowed at any point during general Debate of resolutions or amendments. They may not interrupt speakers.
- Moving the previous question cuts off Debate and moves straight to the Closing Statement.
- In the event this motion comes during debate on an amendment, the delegate must specify which question to move:
 - “I move the previous question on the amendment.” This motion cuts off debate on the amendment and moves straight into the comments from the resolution sponsor(s).
 - “I move the previous question on the resolution.” This motion cuts off debate on both the amendment and the resolution and moves straight into the sponsor’s Closing Statement on the resolution.
- A two-thirds (2/3) majority is required for passage.

3. Table/Remove from the Table

- Motions to table legislation are allowed at any point during convened sessions of debate. They may not interrupt speakers.
- Moving to table legislation defers consideration of the instrument.
- There are three (3) possible options with motions to table:
 - General Motion to Table: This motion simply lays the instrument on the table and may be removed from the table at any point.
 - An instrument laid on the table may be removed from the table with a corresponding motion.
 - “I move to remove [insert resolution name] from the table.”
 - The instrument will be returned to its original place on the Docket. If the chamber has moved beyond that point on the Docket, a motion to suspend the rules and rearrange the Docket may be used.
 - Motion to table for a specified amount of time: This motion defers consideration of legislation until a specified time.
 - Motion to table indefinitely: This motion effectively kills the instrument.
- A simple majority (1/2) vote is required for passage.

4. Suspension of Rules

- Motions to suspend the rules are allowed at any point during convened sessions of debate. They may not interrupt speakers.

- These motions have the effect of adjusting rules in this handbook to satisfy the needs of the floor to properly execute debate.
- The presiding officer is empowered to deem these motions appropriate and admissible.
- The following are common motions to suspend the rules:
 - Extend time: Delegates may use this motion to extend time for questioning or debate.
 - The motion must include a specific amount of time for extension.
 - These motions may only extend the general time for questions or debate; they may not extend times for individual speakers' speeches or subsequent questioning.
 - "I move to suspend the rules and extend the time for questioning by two minutes."
 - Rearrange the Docket: Delegates may use this motion to adjust the order of consideration of resolutions on the Docket.
 - These motions may move a single resolution, move multiple resolutions, or force immediate consideration of a particular resolution.
 - "I move to suspend the rules and rearrange the Docket so that [insert resolution number(s)] appear(s) before [insert resolution number]."
 - "I move to suspend the rules and immediately consider [insert resolution number]."
- All motions to suspend the rules require a two-thirds (2/3) majority for passage.

5. Recess

- Motions to recess are allowed at any point during either committee hearings or convened sessions of the councils. They may not interrupt speakers.
- These motions dismiss the session of a council for a specific duration of time, including a lunch break.
- The committee chair or presiding officer is empowered to not recognize a motion to recess should he/she feel it unnecessary.
- A specific length of time is required in the motion.
- A simple majority (1/2) is required for passage.

6. Adjournment

- Motions to adjourn are allowed at any point during sessions of the councils. They may not interrupt speakers.
- These motions end a session of the councils.
- The presiding officer is empowered to not recognize a motion to adjourn should he/she feel it unnecessary.
- In the event there will be future sessions, a motion to adjourn must include a time to reconvene.
- In the event there are no future sessions, the motion becomes a motion to adjourn sine die.
- A simple majority (1/2) is required for passage.

7. Point of Information

- Points of Information are allowed at any point during convened sessions of the councils. They may interrupt speakers.
- A Point of Information is a statement of a fact or statistic to clarify misinformation on the floor or to provide additional insight relevant to the debate.
- Any delegate may rise and say, "Point of Information!" The presiding officer will acknowledge the point by saying, "Rise and state your point."

8. Point of Order

- Points of Order are allowed at any point during convened sessions of the councils. They may interrupt speakers.
- A Point of Order is used to alert the presiding officer of a perceived error in parliamentary procedure.
- Any delegate may rise and say, "Point of Order!" The presiding officer will acknowledge the point by saying, "Rise and state your point."
- Upon hearing the Point of Order, the presiding officer will either correct the action in question or explain to the delegate how the action in question was in order.

9. Point of Parliamentary Inquiry

- Points of Parliamentary Inquiry are allowed at any point during convened sessions of the councils. They may interrupt speakers.
- A Point of Parliamentary Inquiry is used to ask the presiding officer for clarification on any portion of parliamentary procedure that causes confusion.
- Any delegate may rise and say, "Point of Parliamentary Inquiry!" The presiding officer will acknowledge the point by saying, "Rise and state your point."
- Upon hearing the Point of Parliamentary Inquiry, the presiding officer will explain the point in question to the delegate.

10. Point of Personal Privilege

- Points of Personal Privilege are allowed at any point convened sessions of the councils. They may interrupt speakers.
- A Point of Personal Privilege is used make a personal request during debate, including permission to vacate the chamber for a brief time.
- Any delegate may rise and say, "Point of Personal Privilege!"
- Upon hearing the Point of Personal Privilege, the presiding officer will either grant or deny it.

NOTES

PART A

- PRESIDING OFFICER: "The topic for resolution is _____.
(Provide general information on the topic)
There will be four minutes for questions on this topic."
- PRESIDING OFFICER: "We will now allow delegates to present their country's position on this topic. Each presentation will be a maximum of two minutes. Are there any countries that wish to present their nation's position on this topic?"
(Write down list of countries that wish to present, after list is made, begin by calling on first country and every country after that on the list)
- DELEGATE: The delegate begins presentation by stating name & country, then proceeds to explain his/her country's position on the topic.
- PRESIDING OFFICER: The council will now brainstorm on ways to resolve this issue using an idea sharing forum. We will allow 12 minutes for this process.
(Write down countries statements on board)
- PRESIDING OFFICER: "There will now be 20 minutes to allow countries with similar views to collaborate in writing a resolution for resolution. The proposed resolution must have 4 country signatures before being submitted."

The presiding officers will review submitted resolutions selecting top 3 for debate.

After selection, write and display what the docket, then begin debate

- PRESIDING OFFICER: "Will the VICE PRESIDENT please read the resolution by title only?"
(The resolution sponsors will go to the front of the council)
- VICE PRESIDENT: Read the resolution by title only
- PRESIDING OFFICER: "The sponsor has 3 minutes to present the resolution and 3 minutes for technical questions? AMENDMENTS ARE NOT IN ORDER"
- SPONSOR/CO-SPONSOR: Begins presentation of resolution by stating name and country. The sponsor may yield the floor to the co-sponsor, BUT NOT TO ANYONE ELSE. When the opening statement is finished, the sponsor may say: "I yield the remainder of my time to 1) closing arguments, 2) technical questions, or 3) the chair."

PRESIDING OFFICER: "Technical questions are now in order. The chair recognizes _____(country)"

DELEGATE: States name and country from seat and immediately addresses the technical question to the Sponsor.

After the Sponsor/Co-Sponsor's reply, the Chair continues to recognize other delegates until time is called (after 3 minutes).

PRESIDING OFFICER: "We will now move into 12 minutes of debate. Once recognized, speakers will have 2 minutes. Is there anyone who wishes to speak on this resolution?"
(The presiding officer recognizes a delegate. The two minute rounds will alternate between opposition and proposition speakers)

DELEGATE: Moves to the front of the Council and states name and country. Within the 2-minute time limit, the delegate can:

1. Use all of the time.
2. Use part of the time and yield the remaining time to another delegate by stating "I yield my time to _____(name)." Time during each round may be yielded no more than one time. If time is yielded to a second speaker, the second speaker must yield to the chair. Additionally, opposition speakers must yield to other opposition speakers, and proposition speakers must yield to other propositional speakers. Each two minute round should be preserved for one side of debate.

PRESIDING OFFICER: "Is there anyone who wishes to speak in favor/opposition to this resolution?"
(The presiding officer recognizes a delegate.)

DELEGATE: Moves to the front of the Council, states name and country again. Within the 3-minute time limit, the delegate can:

1. Use all of the time.
2. Use part of the time and yield the remaining time to another delegate by stating "I yield my time to _____(name)."

PLEASE NOTE: The process continues until a total of 12 minutes have elapsed. Debate takes place on an alternating basis (opponent/ proponent/ opponent... or proponent/opponent/proponent...) each with two minutes to make a presentation. After the 1st speaker speaks, the presiding officer announces that Amendments are in order. After the second to last speaker (about 10 minutes in), the presiding officer announces that AMENDMENTS ARE NO LONGER IN ORDER." Upon conclusion of the last speaker's remarks, the presiding officer continues...to PART B.

HOW TO SUBMIT A FLOOR AMENDMENT:

While the debate described in Part A is underway, you may submit an amendment by following this procedure:

1. Ask the PRESIDING OFFICER for an amendment form.
2. Complete the amendment form.
3. Deliver the amendment to the PRESIDING OFFICER.
4. This must be accomplished during the time that the Chair has declared that "Amendments are in order."

HOW AMENDMENTS ARE SELECTED FOR DEBATE:

1. Presiding Officers, determine which amendment would do the most to strengthen the resolution and would also be the most debatable.
2. The number of amendments debated will be ultimately determined by the presiding officer based on relevance and time constraints.
3. If wish to recognize an amendment, must ask resolution author is amendment is hostile or friendly. If friendly, no debate ensues, if hostile, must follow amendment debate procedure.

PRESIDING OFFICER: Reads the amendment. The Amendment Sponsor goes to the front of the Council.)

PRESIDING OFFICER: The Amendment Sponsor has 2 minutes to present the amendment and 1 minute for technical questions.

AMENDMENT SPONSOR: States name and country, gives presentation on amendment. When the opening statement is finished, the amendment sponsor may say: "I yield the remainder of my time to 1) closing arguments, 2) technical questions, or 3) the chair."

PRESIDING OFFICER: "Technical questions are now in order. The Chair recognizes _____ (name)."

DELEGATE: States name and country from seat and immediately addresses the technical question to the Amendment Sponsor. After the Amendment Sponsor's reply, the Chair continues to recognize other legislators until time is called (after 1 minute).

PRESIDING OFFICER: "Is there anyone who wishes to speak in opposition to this amendment?" (Refer to debate in Part A. The same order of events takes place for an amendment except the word "amendment " is submitted for the word "resolution" and the time limit is different- 2 Opponents/ 2 Proponents- 1 minute each; Bill Sponsor- 1 minute; Amendment Sponsor- 1 minute.)

Following the last proponent's remarks, the Presiding Officer continues...

PRESIDING OFFICER: The Resolution Sponsor has 1 minute. (Sponsor moves to front.)

RESOLUTION SPONSOR: States name and country, and presents his position on the amendment.

PRESIDING OFFICER: The Amendment Sponsor has 1 minute to summarize. (Sponsor moves to front of chamber.)

AMENDMENT SPONSOR: States name and country and makes closing remarks.

PRESIDING OFFICER: "Will the VICE PRESIDENT please read the amendment?"

VICE PRESIDENT: Reads the amendment.

PRESIDING OFFICER: We will now move to a vote on the amendment by _____ (Amendment Sponsor). All countries in favor of this amendment signify by saying "Aye". All those opposed signify by saying "Nay". Raps gavel and announce outcome of vote on amendment. – Remind delegates that there is one vote for each country.

PART B

PRESIDING OFFICER: The Sponsor of the Resolution now has two minutes for his closing statements. (Sponsor moves to front of council)

RESOLUTION SPONSOR: States name and country, and give closing statements. Time may be yielded only to Co-Sponsor; no questions allowed.

PRESIDING OFFICER: The resolution will now be read for a third time by title only and placed on final passage.

VICE PRESIDENT: Reads the Resolution by title, noting any amendments that passed.

PRESIDING OFFICER: We will now move to a one minute country caucus. (following the caucus) We will now move to a country vote on this resolution. Each country will select one representative to vote for the country. We will vote by country roll call. Please indicate your country's vote as your nation is called out.

PRESIDING OFFICER: Raps gavel and announces outcome of vote. "By your vote, you have passed (failed) Resolution."
